Success Stories

Equipment purchase and working capital

- Mike recently started his bakery business.

Scenario:

- Mike wishes to purchase a new oven and other equipment for his new bakery. He also needs working capital to get the bakery up and running.
- Mike has an investment property in Sydney that he purchased several years ago. Based on current valuation LVR is <50%.
- However, Mike can't obtain finance from a mainstream bank given the lack of historical financials for his new business.

BrightQ Solution:

- 18-month Interest Only loan secured against his investment property.
- Exit strategy: Mike will prepare financials and other income documentation and refinance to a near prime home loan lender in 18-months.

Urgent settlement

- Monica owns a real estate consultancy business.

Scenario:

- Monica wishes to purchase a property in NSW for her business.
- Monica has a portfolio of investment properties with sufficient equity to cash out the capital needed to finance her new purchase.
- However, Monica's finance has fallen through, and the vendor has issued a rescission notice. Monica doesn't have enough time to switch to another lender.

BrightQ Solution:

- 6-month Interest Only loan secured against Monica's two existing investment properties and new purchase.
- Exit strategy: Monica will refinance to a home loan lender within 6-12 months.
